ADVICE FOR EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYEES

www.churchers.co.uk

HOW CAN WE HELP YOU?

Employment law is ever-evolving, so it's important to keep up to date with your rights and obligations.

Whether you're an employee or employer, we can help you address potential problems long before they escalate into something unmanageable. We believe that regular check-ups for employers and quality, discreet advice for employees, can usually avert employment issues.

If it does come to court, you're in safe hands. We have an excellent record acting for both employers and employees in tribunals.

FOR EMPLOYERS

Employment law can be a maze, so if you're unsure whether you're fulfilling your legislative requirements why not take our 'legal health check'. If it flags up any legal ills, we'll help you take the necessary steps to remedy them before there's any need for legal action.

We work with you to reduce your potential liabilities, with 55% of cases settled out of court annually, our aim is to help you identify risks long before they escalate. The result, is an easy route to HR compliance and a dramatically reduced risk of claims by your employees.

Our team can help you with all aspects of employment law, from drafting contracts and managing employee transfers, through to more sensitive issues such as redundancy and discrimination.

FOR EMPLOYEES

Problems or hostility at work can have a hugely detrimental effect on your health and home life. So, it's important to nip any issues in the bud before they get to that stage.

Inappropriate action by an employer, supplier or client is often easily resolved. But it's important to understand your rights and the options open to you, should things not improve.

Our employment solicitors will treat your case with the delicacy it requires. Should your situation escalate, we can help you take your claim forward to an employment tribunal.

CONTRACTS AND AGREEMENTS

We're not just here when things go wrong. Our team can help you with all forms of employment contracts and agreements, from simply checking over terms, to full negotiation with an employer or employee on your behalf.
